ABOUT BUG-A-SALT

BUG-A-SALT is MACVAD's most successful product distribution to date.

This patented device offers a unique, fun way to eliminate flies – firing ordinary table salt with precision up to three feet.

With over 7 million units sold globally, BUG-A-SALT has become a cult hit in the USA, Australia, and beyond.

Now NEW launching into Europe. Don't miss the opportunity to take advantage of this global sensation, be amongst the first to launch in brick + mortar in Europe and reap the reward.

The BUG-A-SALT 3.0 is available in five distinct colors and designs - offering something for every type of customer.

QA & COMPLIANCE

MACVAD prioritises quality. We inspect all shipments to AQL standards via SGS, Intertek, and our on-site China QA team to ensure full compliance.
